CITY NEWS.

NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

The Daily Democrat delivered by carriers throughout the city will hereafter be at the rate of twenty cents per week.

Important Notice.

Owing to the increased expense of every article used in the printing business, and an advance of twenty-five per cent, on the expense of composition, we are compelled to increase the cost of the Daily Democrat. Hereafter the Daily, by mail, will be seventy-five cents per month, or four dollars for six months, or seven dollars per year—always in advance.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Tuesday, April 26.—John Barnard, drunkenness, &c., fined $10.

Chas. Williams, Beck Waters, and Mary Melton, drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and Williams assaulting Ann Brown, Williams fined $10, and the balance required to return to-morrow.

Jno. Kelly, drunkenness, &c., fined $5.

Kate Murphy, drunkenness, &c., fined $100 for six months.

William F. Schucks, drunkenness, &c., fined $5.

Chris. Farnell, assaulting Jacob Young with intent to rob; bail in $100 to answer a misdemeanor.

Jenny Pearce, charged with arson; discharged.

Henry Powers, drunkenness and disorderly conduct; fined $5.

An assault warrant by H. Sale vs. H. Honor; witnesses recognized.

COCHET-MARTIAL.—In Captain Wolcott's court yesterday the argument in the case of Lieutenant Harrison was heard, the case closed and the findings and sentence of the court sent forward for approval. The evidence in the case of Lieutenant Jas. P. Stoops, of the Second Battalion veterans' regt. we corps, was finished, when the case was continued until to day. To-day private Miles Dolan, of the Forty-ninth Kentucky Infantry, will be tried upon the charge of murder. There is but one specification to the charge, which states that the accused did, at or near Camp Nelson, Jessamine county, Ky., on or about the 27th of October, 1863, with pre-meditation, shoot and kill Charles McLean, then acting as sergeant of a detachment of the Twenty-seventh Kentucky.

STREET RAILROADS.—The work on the street railroads will be commenced during the present week. A quantity of the material offered is expected to arrive to-morrow, and, as hands have employed, the work will undoubtedly be commenced at once. The first road built will be the Main street road, commencing at Twelfth street and extending up Main street to the city limits. The company who have the contract with the city are energetic business men, and the work on the roads will be pushed forward with vigor, and before the close of the present year the cars will be running through the principal streets of our city.

BARRACKS ITEMS.—The amount of business transacted at the barracks yesterday was rather light, but larger than the previous day. The receipts were 130 consignments from different points, on route for their regiments, two deserters from Philadelphia and three from Indianapolis. Forty-seven convalescents and recruits were transferred to their regiments, and two deserters, heavily bound, were sent to Nashville.

ARRESTED FOR SELLING LIQUOR TO SOLDIERS.—The military authorities here continue to use every exertion to fully enforce the order relative to the sale of liquor to soldiers. Yesterday a house on the wharf was closed and the entire stock of liquor confiscated. John McMahon, who keeps a house in Jeffersonville, was arrested, his house closed and liquor confiscated for the same offense.

ARREST OF DESERTERS.—The patrol guard of this city yesterday arrested the following deserters: Monroe Masterson, company F, Twenty-fifth Kentucky, and W. R. Shum, company L, Fourth Kentucky cavalry; Jas. Hughes, of the First Kentucky cavalry; W. C. Jones and J. H. Metcalfe, company D, Seventy-third Indiana, were arrested in Jeffersonville and brought to this city.

BY ORDER OF THE PROVOST MARSHAL A Mr. Strains, who keeps a clothing store on Market street, between First and Second, was arrested for selling officers' clothing to soldiers. He was made to surrender to the soldiers the money paid for the clothing, and the goods were confiscated. He was sent to the military prison until to day, when his case will be investigated.

FINE TOBACCO.—One boxhead of manufacturing leaf was sold yesterday by Phelps, Caldwell & Co., at the Louisville Warehouse, for $45 per hundred, to Mr. George Nash, and one was sold at the Pickett for $70 per hundred. On Monday a boxhead of Missouri tobacco was sold at the Boone Warehouse, to Mr. J. T. Edmunds for $70 per hundred.

THE MILITARY PRISON.—Capt. Pratt, commander at this institution, is having the place thoroughly overhauled and fitted up for the summer. The entire yard is being sodded, and all the buildings are being whitewashed. Captain Pratt is an excellent officer, and he is determined to keep the prison in the most complete order.

THE CELEBRATED Alf. Barrett, after his performance in amusing our citizens most effectually, proposes to visit New Albany and teach the citizens there to "laugh and grow fat." They will certainly appreciate his talents and help to fill his pockets, well satisfied that they have got the full worth of their money.

BENEFIT OF T. L. CONNOR.—The annual benefit of this gentleman, the leading man and stage manager at the Louisville Theater, is announced for next Saturday evening. Mr. Connor is an actor of fine merits, and the bill selected for the occasion is a good one. We have no doubt that the house will be crowded.

THE CIRCUIT COURT OF JEFFERSON COUNTY commences in this city on next Monday. There will be a large number of cases before the court this term, including a number of persons who have been held to answer the charge of murder.

Yesterday a man by the name of Wm. Dooley, who is not now, but has been in the service of the government, was arrested for attempting to cross the river on a government pass. He was sent to the military prison.

It is currently reported that some important changes are to be made in the military commands of this city, full particulars of which will be given as soon as the official orders are issued.

For Cincinnati and other papers, we are indebted to W. H. Ehrich, the popular news-dealer at the corner of Fifth and Main.

XXXVIIth Congress—First Session, Washington, April 25.

HOUSE.

Mr. Stevens asked leave to offer a resolution that, as a general order of the War Department assigned to Gen. General Blair, the command of the Army of the Potomac, that he be requested, if not inconsistent with public interest, to inform them whether Blair is a Major General, and if so, when appointed; and whether said Blair resigned his commission in the service of the country, and his seat in Congress, and what action was taken on such resignation.

Mr. Wood moved that they be requested to inform them that, notwithstanding the report of the public interest, with the report of Gen. Dix concerning fraudulent transactions in the customhouse.

Mr. Murphy objected to both resolutions.

Mr. Monroe moved a resolution that the majority of the duties on imports take place from and after its passage and continue till July 1st, 1864.

Mr. Kesson offered a proviso that printing presses for books and newspapers exclusively be exempt from the operation of the resolution.

WASHINGTON, April 26.

HOUSE.

The House went into Committee on the Revenue.

Mr. Holman, of Ind., offered an amendment, which was rejected, imposing a tax of 1 per cent, instead of 2½ per cent, or profits for income, which shall derive from the sale of notes, bonds, and securities of the United States.

Mr. Holman offered another amendment, which was adopted, that income derived from interest of notes, bonds or other securities of the United States shall be included in the estimation of the amount of the tax, which places duty at 2 per cent, on all over $600.

SENATE.

Mr. Hale introduced a bill to amend an act to promote the efficiency of the navy; referred to the Committee on Commerce.

Mr. Wilson submitted a resolution, appropriating $25,000 for the pay and subsistence of the militia to be called out by the President; referred to the Military Committee.

The Post Office Department a postal money order system was taken up.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., April 22.

Contrabands are again coming from the swamps of the Chickahominy within the Union lines at Williamsburg. For some time there have been but few arrivals of this description, but the recent arrival of a large number of colored refugees is an almost infallible indication of movements on the part of the enemy. From all reports, so far as received, the rebels are evidently massing troops in all their strongholds for an expected advance upon the peninsula.

Richmond authorities are evidently completely puzzled with the designs of Gen. Grant. No information is being constantly received of the marching and counter-marching of troops.

Gen. Fitz Hugh Lee made his appearance in the neighborhood of Charles City Court House, and is evidently making his way from 3,000 to 6,000. The greater part of this force is composed of ex-enlisted veterans who have lately returned from recruiting forays.

Col. Robins still commands a force in this immediate neighborhood.

Charles City Courthouse has been garrisoned by the pickets of the old infantry division under command of Gen. Lee, and a regiment of horse artillery, a company of engineers, a company of heavy artillery, have been placed at Bromley's Station, on York river, where they were reported engaged in throwing up earthworks, and were also concentrated on all intermediate points between York and James rivers. Contrabands state that great excitement prevails among the inhabitants of the region, and a Yankee advance momentarily expected.

WASHINGTON, April 25.

Wild rumors are abroad this evening that the whole of Longstreet's corps are marching down the Shenandoah Valley towards the Maryland line. It is scarcely necessary to state that such a reliance on the "Yankees" is the Richmond. Leader of the 10th, contains a dispatch from Fort Pillow, dated April 12th, stating that Forrest and Clusters attacked the 10th on the 11th. The garrison consisted of 200, who were in great alarm, and were refusing to surrender, and was carried by storm, and both sides entered the fort simultaneously.

An indiscriminate slaughter followed, and 100 rebels were captured and the balance of the garrison slain. The fort ran with blood, and many jumped into the river and were drowned or killed while attempting to escape. One hundred rebels were captured, and were taken as prisoners of war.

Colonel Fish, late Provost Marshal of Baltimore, was sentenced by court-martial to one year's imprisonment in the Albany Penitentiary.

WASHINGTON, April 25.

The Star of this afternoon says information from the rebel lines as late as Friday morning is that the effect of Gen. Grant's march has not as yet been reported, moving toward the Shenandoah valley, but is in his old position on the Rapidan. Such movements as were going on seemed to be reconnoissance to ascertain Grant's position, and the rebels are preparing for a sudden move, but are not yet prepared to wait for Grant to open and develop his game.

The movement of our gunboats up the Rapidan has raised an alarm. In Richmond that alarm is still on, and a large number of rebels have been raised among the rebels of a movement up the south side of James river. Lee may be loyed in Richmond and will fall there, and for that he may be condemned by Grant.

Colonel Fish, late Provost Marshal of Baltimore, was sentenced by court-martial to one year's imprisonment in the Albany Penitentiary.

WASHINGTON, April 25.

Gen. Grant has telegrams to add others to the regular army, and is bold to make them irresistible. Concentration is the order of the day. The troops are now massed upon such lines as the Lieutenant General of the rebels can hardly conceive. Instead of being disengaged at the apparent weakness of our forces in Tennessee, Kentucky, North Carolina, and elsewhere, the rebels are now to be surrounded by the fact, as the explanation is, that forces are massed against points and armies much more important. When the next shock of battle comes, the rebels will be in a bind.
